NOT-Reading Matter on every page.

[Reported expressly for the Louisville Courier.]

COURT OF APPEALS.

CAUSES DECIDED.

Orderer vs Albaer, Lou. Chancery; reversed.

Harmon vs. Lou. Chancery; affirmed.

Beatty vs. Howell, Mayville, Mason; motion to affirm denied, cause overruled.

ORDERS.

Cole vs Ames, Barron; $1,000.

Scarce vs. Scarce, Woodford; $1,000.

McGinnis vs. McGinnis, overruled.

Franklin Insurance Co. vs. Ohio Life and Trust Co., Lou.

Madison and Indiana Railroad Co. vs. Levi & Briscoe, Lou. Chancery; no award.

LOCAL MATTERS.

The wife of Chas. Rohr, who keeps a coffee house, was attacked with a stonk on Wednesday, and yesterday was still very ill. She will probably recover.

SAD ACCIDENT.—Two little boys, at Red Mills, Ky., son of Wm. Wood, Fsq., were struck by lightning on Saturday last. One was killed, the other it is thought, will recover.

BROWNING.—A German boy named Phister, aged 17 years, who formerly lived in Louisville, was drowned while bathing at Utica, Ind., on Wednesday. His body was recovered the next day.

THE OLD STORY.—Tim Ryan was arrested yesterday for brutally whipping his wife, and taken to jail. Just as soon as the poor woman could get there, she went taking something to eat, and implored the jailor, to give it to him. Women are better than men.

We are requested, by Messrs. S. G. Henry & Co., to state that in addition to the glassware, groceries, and other articles advertised for this morning, (Friday) will be added an invoice of cabinet furniture and chairs, just received, and to which the special attention of furniture buyers is called. An invoice of china ware will also be necessary.

THE TRUTH IS, Judge Wheat would never do to stamp a district composed of twenty-one counties between now and August he would not go through with more than a tenth of the number. He is too slow and heavy and lethargic for such an undertaking. A single county, or at most a Circuit Court district, would be large enough for his energies. We do not doubt, however, that the Know Nothing's will run him for County Judge when they see, next August, how much Wheat has beaten him, and then he will be found upon the stump where small stamping only will be necessary.

SHOCKING MURDER AND SUICIDE.—At Cedar Rapids, Ia., last week, Ambrose S. Skeets endeavored to effect a reconciliation with his wife, from whom he had been separated. She refused, and expressed her intention to sue for a divorce if Wheat's absence from the stump as laziness. We have heard of inertia being called by very strange names, and as the editor of the Journal is given to strange things, he will be allowed to call Judge Wheat's laziness a digit.
